Target group

Our target group consists of socially connected and rather style-oriented consumers with a creative attitude who own one or more touch screen devices – whether media tablet, smartphone or touch screen PC. They love to take notes, to capture ideas or to just doodle around. They want to share their lives and their photos, giving them their very personal touch. They need a flexible and simple-to-use stylus that offers a smudge-free way to navigate and a smooth and natural writing experience for better looking results. And they want their stylus to perfectly match their own tastes and style.
